A New Artform . Akhenaten's new religion gave rise to new art in a brief renaissance that turned traditional Egyptian style on its head. For the first time in history, portraits of the royal family depicted them as humans, instead of purely divine beings, with Akhenaten and Nefertiti engaged in daily life. Indeed, the pharaoh and his queen appear on numerous murals with their children upon ...

In Akhenaten, Nefertiti, and their children blessed by the Aten (Figure 4), Akhenaten is depicted with his famous wife Nefertiti and three of his children by her—two girls and a boy. Both the pharaoh and his queen are with their children in a buoyant, upbeat manner rather than a strict, professional one, and they are, more importantly, interacting with them directly rather than through the traditional wet-nurse.
